

08/10/10 AIACV PRESENTS:

ANONYMOUS BUILDINGS (WE SHOULD ❤️!)

Join hosts Kris Barkley, AIA, Saxon Sigerson, AIA and Arturo Levenfeld, AIA for a casual evening of discussion centered around the topic of "Anonymous Buildings we Should Love". Three examples will be presented with an emphasis on what makes each of these works significant in spite of their relative anonymity. Are buildings any less successful if they are unknown? Do only great buildings get noticed? Is anonymity a bad quality or is it important in defining contrast?

Our open forum discussion is intended to examine the importance of design in those structures that often are overlooked and unnoticed in the world of architecture.

Date: Tuesday, August 10th, 2010

Time: 5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Location: AIA Central Valley Chapter Office
1400 S Street, Suite 1 Sacramento

AIA/CES: 1.5 Learning Units

Cost: $10 per person (+ service fee at Brown Paper Tickets;
includes pizza, tap beer and non-alcoholic beverages)

RSVP: Brown Paper Tickets
www.brownpapertickets.com/event/119915

Questions: Kim Anderson
kanderson@aiacv.org or 916-379-8798

ARCHITECTURE MATTERS
DESIGN FORUM SERIES