

SOUL OF THE CITY

Soul of the City is an engaging dialogue series between the public and the design profession on issues of importance to the community and the region with a focus on improving communication, understanding and collaboration. (formerly known as the 4th Wednesday Design Dialogue Series)

Free admission
5:45pm to 7:30pm

AIA Central Valley
Gallery
1400 S Street, Sacramento

The AIA Central Valley is 1.5 blocks from the 13th Street Light Rail Station. Bikes may be locked in the courtyard. On-street and lot parking are available. Enter building on 14th Street; accessible.

Find us on Facebook facebook.com/SacSoul2012

or for info, e-mail cbrown@dlrgroup.com

February 27 THE SOUL OF SACRAMENTO

“What is it? Where is it? Let’s find it and Celebrate it”. Join us for an introduction to the Soul of the City!

Facilitators: Kim Alexander of the California Voter Foundation, Saxon Sigerson, AIA and Jason Silva, AIA.

April 24 URBAN OPEN SPACE

What makes a good place to visit in the urban environment? Where are the best places in our region? Join us for this lively discussion about where it is, and where to find it.

Facilitators: Peter Larimer, ASLA & Marq Truscott, FASLA

June 26 STREET FOOD IN THE CITY

Appetite on the Run! A discussion on street food and its impact on Sacramento.

Facilitators: Costa Apostolos of Sacto MoFo and writes on, Living In Urban Sac and Catherine Enfield, a food truck advocate who’s written many articles on the subject, founding member of Sacto MoFo, and now has SacFoodTrucks.net.

Food trucks will be present for you to enjoy!

October Dates to be posted to Facebook URBAN AGRICULTURE

The best restaurants in town have long preferred local source food, and the public appetite for it has increased steadily. Come to discuss the spectrum of urban agriculture, from edible front yards and urban farming community gardens.

Facilitators: Bill Maynard, City of Sacramento Community Garden Program Coordinator, Claire Napawan, Assistant Professor, Landscape Architecture at UC Davis & Marq Truscott, FASLA

INFILL: HOW TO BALANCE THE OLD WITH THE NEW

“A discussion of creating the new in traditional neighborhoods; balancing respect, sustainably design opportunity and individuality.”

Facilitators: Bruce Monighan, AIA and Craig Hausman, AIA